

ENGAGING FAMILIES OF ADULT CONSUMERS

DATE & TIME: April 25, 2013 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

PLACE: Santa Clarita Mental Health Center
23501 Cinema Drive ,Suite 200
Valencia, CA 91355

PARKING: Free parking around the building.

This training will focus on strategies to strengthen relationships between consumers, family members and the treatment team, as a way to support the consumers' recovery. Recovery involves a network of supports to maximize the benefits of community resources. As part of this network, consumer defined family members have an essential role on treatment teams. Through this training the participant will have the tools necessary to successfully engage families in their role toward the recovery of their loved one. This training will help to define the role of family, explore ways that treatment teams can better engage families in the clinic setting, provide resources for staff to utilize in the clinic and build a foundation for family inclusion on treatment teams. In order for consumers to use support services to live in their home communities, families can be an asset to support treatment goals and problem solve for the best outcomes of "Hope, Wellness, and Recovery."

TARGET AUDIENCE: ASOC Mental Health staff from DMH and Contract Providers

OBJECTIVES: As a result of attending this training, participants should be able to:

1. Summarize ways family involvement with the treatment team benefits the consumer.
2. Describe how systems theory applies cross culturally.
3. List five examples of systems theory which enhances family involvement in the clinical setting.
4. Identify at least three strategies to engage families in treatment.
